Hello Friends,

I hope this message finds you well as we continue to make strides in our dynamic industry. It is my honor to address you in this month's newsletter, celebrating the invaluable contributions of women in construction. Every day, you exemplify resilience, skill, and leadership on worksites across our beautiful state. Your dedication not only shapes our everyday life but also paves the way for future generations of women entering this field. As we confront challenges and seize opportunities in construction, your expertise and innovation play a pivotal role in driving our collective success.

Together, we are breaking barriers, challenging stereotypes, and creating a more inclusive environment where everyone can thrive. I encourage you to take pride in your achievements and share your stories, ideas, and experiences with us. Your perspectives are invaluable in shaping our ongoing journey towards excellence, to enrich our community and inspire others to pursue their passions in construction. Let us continue to build on this foundation we laid; towards a future where diversity and equality are cornerstones of our industry.

THANK YOU for your unwavering dedication, passion and determination. Your impact is felt far beyond construction sites, shaping a brighter tomorrow for us all.

Membership Matters!

Why Join?

- Belong to the only association in New

Membership in WICNM is only $55 per year and leaves no doubt to its value and return on investment. As a member, you receive a membership discount on membership meetings, and are able to attend our networking events at no-charge. Just the networking events only are a $45 face value!

The real value of membership is not monetary though, it's about connecting and belonging to a group of women that understand and take pride in the industry of construction just like you. It's what we all have in common whether you're wearing a hard hat in the field or a suit to the office. If you have a hand in the construction industry, this is where you belong.

June is
NATIONAL
MONTH

National Safety Month is celebrated in June when people focus on how they can keep their environment safe and free from any danger. It is a time to reflect on the working conditions around the country and how we can create a safer environment for those who work hard for honest pay. By learning about safety methods, we can increase pressure on employers to offer a safer working environment to their employees.
