Mission Statement

“The purpose for which the association is organized is to promote common interests of its members through membership, networking, community outreach, training, and to advance and maintain an enlightened understanding of women in the construction industry.”

2024 Dates

Mark your calendars!

Oct 19th - Roadrunner Food Bank volunteer opportunity

Nov 9th - Cowgirl Christmas 5th annual Constructing Cheer Party

Hello Friends,

This year has really flown by and we are down the last couple events for the year.

The first is on Saturday October 19, from 8am - 10am. Our Philanthropy Committee has planned a volunteer opportunity with the Roadrunner Food Bank. Please consider joining us and signing up to serve our community.

Finally we have Cowgirl Christmas on November 9th at Sandia Resort Casino. There will be food, drinking and music to close out the year. It will be a great way to unwind and end 2024.

The Board is starting to plan for 2025 and we would love your feedback. If you have any ideas or suggestions for the new year, please reach out and let us hear them. After all this association is for all of us and we love hearing new ideas.

Lastly, I would like to thank Christi Zimmerman for all her hard work and dedication with the Marketing Committee. Christi has taken on the task of putting together the monthly newsletters and we appreciate all her help.

Membership Matters!

Membership in WICNM is only $55 per year and leaves no doubt to its value and return on investment. As a member, you receive a membership discount on membership meetings, and are able to attend our networking events at no-charge. Just the networking events only are a $45 face value!

The real value of membership is not monetary though, it's about connecting and belonging to a group of women that understand and take pride in the industry of construction just like you. It's what we all have in common whether you're wearing a hard hat in the field or a suit to the office. If you have a hand in the construction industry, this is where you belong.

Why Join?

- Belong to the only association in New Mexico specifically for Women in the construction industry
- Support women in our industry
- Networking evening events
- Membership Meetings with relevant, informative, and interesting speakers
- Monthly Newsletter highlighting our association, our members, women in the industry, events, and community support opportunities.
- Committees - Planning, Marketing & Membership, Philanthropy
- Opportunities to give to and help women in our community
- It's FUN!
